

Adult Speakers' Vocabulary Arranged Alphabetically

REFERENCE: Balandin, S., & Iacono, T. (1999). Crews, wusses, and whoppas: Core and fringe vocabularies of Australian meal-break conversations in the workplace. Augmentative and Alternative Communication, 15, 95-109.

Conversational samples were collected from 34 non-disabled subjects across four work sites. There was a small stable core vocabulary 347 words which accounted for 78% of the conversational sample in the study by Balandin and Iacono.
