“Parts of a Book” Riddles

by Gail Van Tatenhove
Instructions

• Have the student using the Unity® program ask the riddle using the descriptions of each of the 5 parts of a book. The descriptions primarily use core vocabulary words. Have the peers, parents or teachers answer the riddle with extended vocabulary. Add in any missing words.

• Add the missing extended vocabulary words in the student’s AAC device in a language arts activity row or page.
Riddle #1

- I am on the outside.
- I can be hard or soft.
- What am I?

- I am the cover.
Riddle #2

- I am right here.
- I help the book stand up.
- What am I?

- I am the spine.
Riddle #3

• I am on the front.
• I tell the book’s name.
• What am I?

• I am the title.
Riddle #4

- I put the words together.
- I write the book.
- Who am I?
- I am the author.
Riddle #5

• I make a book look nice.
• I draw the pictures.
• Who am I?

• I am the illustrator.
I am on the outside. I can be hard or soft. What am I?

I am the cover.

I am right here. I help the book stand up. What am I?

I am the spine.

I am on the front. I tell the book's name. What am I?

I am the title.

I put the words together. I write the book. Who am I?

I am the author.

I make a book look nice. I draw the pictures. Who am I?

I am the illustrator.
I am on the outside. I can be hard or soft.

I am the cover.

I am right here. I help the book stand up.

I am the spine.*

I am on the front.* I tell the book's name. What am I?

I am the title.*

I put the words together. I write the book.

I am the author.*

I make a book look nice. I draw the pictures.

I am the illustrator.*
I am on the outside. I can be hard or soft. What am I?

I am the cover.

I am right here. I help the book stand up. What am I?

I am the spine.*

I am on the front.* I tell the book's name. What am I?

I am the title.*

I put the words together. I write the book. Who am I?

I am the author.*

I make a book look nice. I draw the pictures. Who am I?

I am the illustrator.*
Unity® 144 Full

I am on the outside. I can be hard or soft. What am I?

I am the cover.

I am right here. I help the book stand up. What am I?

I am the spine.*

I am on the front. I tell the book's name. What am I?

I am the title.*

I put the words together. I write the book. Who am I?

I am the author.*

I make a book look nice. I draw the pictures. Who am I?

I am the illustrator.*